

THE LAW OFFICES OF
RICHARD A. SIMMONS

147 Old Solomons Island Road
Suite 401
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

UCS-ALT

Richard A. Simmons, Esquire
richardasimmons.com
Timothy D. Murnane, of counsel

(410) 956-2000
Fax (410) 956-9350

November 7, 2011

Judge Michael Wachs
Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County
7 Church Circle
Annapolis, MD 21401

State v. Donald Brunstetter, Case No. 02K07001889

Dear Judge Wachs:

Please find enclosed correspondence from the above listed defendant. Mr. Brunstetter still continues to thrive in his rehabilitation within the Department of Corrections where he has been housed since August 20, 2008, serving a fifteen year sentence.

In addition to the enclosed certificates (2) evidencing his continued participation in beneficial correctional programs, he continues to attend and contribute to Narcotics Anonymous classes on a daily basis.

As the court may remember, after the plea of not guilty and trial, Mr. Brunstetter did exhibit remorse in restating his position concerning the allegations. He accepted responsibility, and sought, with the court's permission, to reconcile with the victim in this case, his former stepdaughter.

Mr. Brunstetter continues to exhibit the qualities of a person who is worthy of rehabilitation. He is requesting that you reconsider his application for evaluation per Health General 8-505.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

UCS-ALT

Sincerely,

Richard A. Simmons

Enc. (2)
Cc: State's Attorney
Client
RAS/ts

11/12/11
NOTED
NO REVIEW IS REQUIRED

(CW 11/15)

2011 NOV 11 A 10:54

FILED
CORRECTIONS DEPARTMENT
2011 NOV 10 A 10:47